 Treasury Department,

BUREAU OF THE MINT.

Washington, D. C., July 12, 1885.

Sir:

Referring to your letter of the 5th instant, in relation to the accumulation of standard silver dollars at your Mint; I have to state, that I have consulted with the Treasurer of the United States in reference to the moving of the same, and he expresses a willingness to relieve your vaults, but does not deem it advisable to transfer at present, any more than it may absolutely be necessary.

I will therefore, thank you to inform me what is the capacity of your vaults, and whether the transfer of one or two millions will give you ass:

the relief desired.

Very respectfully
